It is Never Too Late to...

...have a happy childhood!

THIS TRAINING IS FOR:

Anyone interested in establishing emotional security, empowerment and creativity for themselves and their clients

Every child needs to feel wanted and unconditionally loved, nourished and cared for whilst being protected and guided..

Most of us haven't had these fundamental needs fully met. The effects of this neglect and sometimes abuse lead to emotional and physical wounds that will affect the rest of our life and can severely limit our capacity for well being, emotional security, happiness, self-esteem and success in life.

With Alchemy, you can reverse this situation, find back your inner well-being and help others do the same.

This Alchemy training is also the first part of The Holistic Parenting Educator (HPE) training. A two-year course in holistic parenting which includes preconception preparation, prenatal bonding, HypnoBirthing® natural childbirth education as well as infant bonding.

For more information please contact: alchemy@suryoma.com

In this Alchemy intensive training, you will have a unique opportunity to heal your own emotional wounds and change limiting core beliefs about yourself and the world.

You will work on all aspects of your being: physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual and learn efficient techniques and protocols to help your clients and patients do the same.
